SIGNIFICANCE

One of the most stylish examples of Bungalow-influenced houses in San Angelo. Constructed prior to 1910, it was occupied by S.L. Henderson, who appears to have been a dealer in carriages, wagons, and farm implements and later automobiles, selling Buicks from 33-35 East Concho. Well maintained and generally unaltered, this house is a good example of quality small residences built during the first decade, a period of steady economic growth.
